Ur. McAribur's Tessage.

On Saturday we published the defiant and rul ing message of Ww A Barston, late acting Governor of this State communicating to the Legi-lature his "resignation" of the office which he had usurped and from which he was about to be ejected. This morning we give the briefer message of Mr McARTHUR, notifying the Ingis lature that as Lieut Governor, he has succeeded to the post vacated by the resignation of M BARSTOW There has been some role tall of an intention, on Mr McARTHUR's part, to mustain possession of this office. We have no belief that he has any such idea h miself, or can be per und ed, by ill advised partizans, to try so foolish and fatal an experiment Mr McARTHER will be acting Governor during the remainder of Mr Barstow's term and no longer So soon as the Supreme Court thall have decided—as they probably will do to day-that Mr Bashrord, not Mr Barstow, was the kg d ly elected Governor of this State, the 't im of Mr Barstow's office, and that of Mr McAr thur his lineal successor, will come to an abrupt conclusion, and the rightful claimant be in tilled in the Executive Office

The Cubernatorial Case-128ip. The question has become more complicated since it is announced that Arthur McArthur, the Lieut Governor, who becomes Governor, o the resignation of the Governor, has sent in a maximum.
